

Rob (Robert) Hilton
President, HF&H Consultants
NSAC Board Member

Rob Hilton is the President of HF&H Consultants where he has spent more than 20 years providing recycling and solid waste consulting services to over 150 public agencies. Rob's work frequently involves helping local agencies resolve complex contractual, programmatic, financial, and operational challenges within franchise systems. Since 2020, Rob has served as the Executive Director for the West Valley Solid Waste Management Authority, a joint powers authority of four communities in Santa Clara County. In that capacity Rob is responsible for overseeing the entire solid waste management system. From 2011 through 2018, Rob served as Treasurer and President of the California Resource Recovery Association where he was instrumental in advocating for many of California's recent statewide producer responsibility, reuse, recycling, and hazardous materials policies.
